CPT Lange

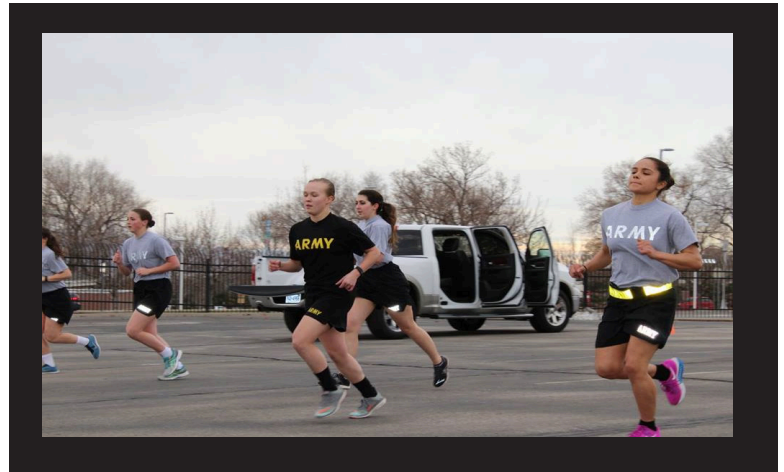

CPT John “Jack” Lange commissioned into the Military Intelligence Corps and was detailed Armor branch through Michigan State University ROTC in May of 2008 as a Distinguished Military Graduate; majoring in Criminal Justice. Upon completion of the Armor Officer Basic course, his first assignment was 2-14 Cavalry, 2/25 SBCT at Schofield Barracks, HI. With 2-14 CAV he deployed to: Babina, India for Combined Training Exercise Yudh Abyas, the National Training Center at Fort Irwin, and to Diyala Province, Iraq. In Iraq he served as a Scout Platoon Leader responsible for the security of a tri-partite checkpoint (Kurdish, Iraqi, and US) and the surrounding cities. He finished this deployment as the assistant BN S2, focusing on collection management and continuing the training of Iraqi Security Force Intelligence Officers. After fulfilling his detail to Armor Branch, CPT Lange completed the MICCC at Ft Huachuca, AZ and was assigned to HQ, 4/101 IBCT “Currahee”. With Currahee, he deployed to Khowst-Paktiya, Afghanistan as a Security Forces Advisor, assistant BDE S2 OIC, and as the intelligence liaison with OGA. Upon return from deployment he served as the BN S2 OIC for 1-506th IN “Red Currahee” where he completed two Joint Readiness Training Center (JRTC) rotations at Ft Polk, LA and one Warfighter Combined training exercise at Ft Hood, TX. Since joining the Ute Warrior Battalion as Cadre, he has been the Program S3 and the Lead instructor for the MS-IIs for the last two years.

About our MS3 Cadet Leadership

Company Commander

Cadet Kristen Day is from Payson Utah. She is studying Biology at Westminster College. She enjoys country dancing and works with special needs children. She strives to lead from the front and to be an example of someone who meets expectations. Her favorite leadership quote is “Treat people as if they were what they ought to be, and you help them become what they are capable of being.” ~Johann Wolfgang van Goethe

1st Sergeant

Cadet Justin Murrell is from Farmington, Utah. He is studying Sociology at the University of Utah. He enjoys spending time with his son. His favorite leadership quote is, “Lead me, follow me, or get the hell out of my way.” -Patton

Executive Officer

Cadet Skyler Mcniel was born and raised in Layton, Utah. He is a Business Marketing major at the University of Utah. He enjoys hiking, camping, climbing, snowboarding, mountain biking, and visiting National Parks. When it comes to leadership he tries to lead by example. Dwight Eisenhower said, “Leadership is the art of getting someone else to do something you want done because he wants to do it.” Leadership isn’t about delegating tasks just because you don’t want to personally do them. It’s about coming together and efficiently accomplishing the mission as a team.
